

Accessing Event Handlers for a Form Control

To access a particular event handler for a form control, you must be in DESIGN mode.

Then select the icon highlighted below:

You will then be displayed with a list of event handlers for the selected form control.

Select the required event handler and write the code!